T. S. BURNAM IS CHOSEN DIRECTOR

Madison's Association Chairman Unanimously Elected On State Board

T. S. Burnam, of Richmond, was elected a director from this, the 19th district in the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association, at a meeting of delegates from the five counties of the district here Tuesday morning. The election of Mr. Burnam was made by unanimous vote of the seven delegates present.

Mr. Burnam will attend the first meeting of the board of directors at Lexington Wednesday. Although there are five counties in this district only two were represented by delegates, as Laurel, Rockcastle and Jackson are unorganized. Mr. Joe Wallace, of Jessamine, was elected chairman of the meeting when the delegates assembled at 11 o'clock. Mr. T. S. Hagan was chosen secretary of the convention. Mr. Mr. Burnam was placed in nomination by Mr. Waller Bennett, and over his protest was elected director by a unanimous vote of the convention.

His many friends feel that such an honor is well due to Mr. Burnam who has played a leading part in organizing Madison county for the Burley Association. He has worked long and faithfully, and there is perhaps no man more fully conversant with tobacco conditions in this section than he. He will prove a strong member of the directorate, and one in whom every man has the fullest confidence.

At the election held in Madison county Monday, Madison's four delegates to the meeting today were elected. They are Messrs. T. S. Burnam, Waller Bennett, T. S. Hagan and W. A. Arbuckle.

Jessamine county has three votes in the district convention today and her delegates chosen Monday are Messrs. Joe Wallace, J. J. Richardson and O. F. Troutman.

CIRCUIT JUDGE'S SON IS SHOT TO DEATH

Pikeville, Dec. 13—Palmer Vanover, son of Circuit Judge Roscoe Vanover, who was shot here Saturday night by policeman Bales, died at the King's Daughters Hospital at Ashland at 1 o'clock Monday morning.

Vanover had entered a box car it is claimed, and taken a crate of cigarettes. He was shadowed by officer Bales and attempted to escape by running, but Bales fired on him. The officer then took him in custody and did not realize for some time that the boy was seriously shot. Vanover was rushed to the Ashland hospital on a special train. An operation early Sunday morning disclosed that his intestines and liver had been pierced several times by the bullet.

The body was to be brought to Pikeville early today.

ARE HELD TO GRAND JURY WITHOUT BOND

Rucker and Garrett, Charged With VanSant Killing, Waive Examining Trial

The big crowd which gathered in the county court room Tuesday morning expecting to hear the testimony in the cases of Oscar Rucker and Frank Garrett charged with the murder of Oliver VanSant near Bobtown last Friday night, was disappointed when examination was waived. Judge W. K. Price then held the two defendants to await the grand jury at the February term of circuit court, without bond. They were returned to jail.

Clifton Fuller, who was riding with young Vansant at the time a shot rang out in the darkness and killed him, was about the only witness for the prosecution who did not answer present when County Attorney O. P. Jackson had his witnesses called. Other witnesses for the prosecution were Sheriff P. S. Whitlock, Deputy Sheriff Sam Bush, Deputy Sheriff W. A. Johnson, Grover Williams, Capt. V. G. Mullikin, of Lexington, whose bloodhounds trailed to the home of Garrett, Flem VanWinkle, and W. R. Duren.

Attorneys G. Murray Smith and George P. Ross, for the defense did not show their hands, but after the prosecution had announced it was ready, simply waived examining trial.

The court room was crowded with spectators for the slaying of VanSant has all the appearances of having been as carefully planned and cold-blooded a killing as has been noted here in many a year.

Many were amazed at the youth of the two defendants, neither appearing over 21 years of age. The parents and many relatives of both were in the court room. It is understood that both of the prisoners and their friends are confident of acquittal. Just what their defense will be has not been indicated, however.

FOUR POWERS SIGN THE NEW LEAGUE

By Associated Press

Washington, Dec. 13—The new quadruple treaty to preserve peace in the Pacific was formally signed today by plenipotentiaries of the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan. The signatures were affixed in an attorney room of the office of Secretary of State. There was no formal ceremony.

The American delegates were the first to sign under the alphabetical arrangement. They put their names to the document a few minutes after 11 o'clock. The approval of the United States was given, however, subject to a written understanding with the Japanese providing that the Yap treaty must be consummated before the four-power agreement is binding. Except for this reservation, which is expected to be erased within a few days, the new Pacific agreement requires only parliamentary ratification by the various governments.

COULDN'T FIND BOOZE AT HIGH BRIDGE

By Associated Press

Lexington, Dec. 13—Prohibition Director Sam Collins returned early today with his agents from High Bridge on the Kentucky river, where it had been reported 216 cases of whisky stolen from the T. P. Ripy distillery at Tyrone on Thursday, had been located. Collins said he found no whisky and indicated the belief it is hidden here. He went to High Bridge shortly after midnight on a report that the liquor on trucks was being guarded by men who probably would give battle.

ACQUIRE ANOTHER BIG ICE PLANT

Hanger and Weisenburgh Purchase Large Property At Lafayette, Indiana

The Weather

Arnold Hanger and Louis Weisenburgh, of Richmond, have taken over another big ice manufacturing property in Indiana and Mr. Hanger will go from New Castle to Lafayette to take charge of it. The Lafayette Journal and Courier tells of the deal in which they are interested, which will be read with interest by their friends here. It says:

One of Lafayette's most important business transactions in recent years, culminated Saturday in the purchase of the Thieme and Wagner brewery property by the Lafayette Consumers Company, a controlling interest in which was acquired recently by Col. H. B. Hanger and L. B. Weisenburgh, of Richmond, Ky., who bought out the Born, Bauer & Murdoch interests in the concern.

The deal means the complete consolidation of the various ice plants of the city, merging the business of the Lafayette Consumers company with that of the People's Ice and Fuel company, which has been occupying parts of the brewery building. This will ultimately be accomplished through the formation of a new company to be organized under the laws of the state of Indiana, to be known as the Lafayette Ice and Coal company. The valuation of the combined properties will amount to approximately a half million dollars.

While the management of the new company will be controlled by Messrs. Weisenburgh and Hanger, the stockholders of the National Fruit Juice company will take as part consideration a first preferred stock interest in the business.

It is understood that Mr. Weisenburgh will act as president of the new corporation. Mr. Weisenburgh is a comparatively young manufacturer who has made a remarkable success of the ice business. Starting with a small plant in his home town, Richmond, Ky., he, in conjunction with Col. H. B. Hanger, of the same city, has acquired ice plants in various cities in Indiana and Ohio during past fifteen years.

These properties have been very successful, due to the modern effective methods used both in plant supervision and fair treatment given the public. This will be the eighth plant owned and operated by Messrs. Hanger and Weisenburgh whose headquarters are at Hamilton, Ohio.

Arnold Hanger, son of H. B. Hanger, will be placed in charge of the local plant. Mr. Hanger is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has been local manager of a plant at New Castle, Indiana. He will take up his residence here shortly.

H. B. Hanger is president of the State Bank

Senator Stanley is right. The quadrupole alliance between the United States, Japan, England and France is practically a League of Nations on a small scale. Woodrow Wilson originated the idea and Harding's arms conference plagiarized it. The quadrupole alliance in the Pacific can control world peace and world commerce. And to think that Henry Cabot Lodge presented the plan with his endorsement.

Prohibition Agent Lucien Barron says that the Richmond police force is one of the most efficient in the state. And he knows, for he's meeting all sorts of law enforcement officers in his work in the prohibition department. Well, the local patrolmen have provided Uncle Sam's dry agents with some good material to work on lately, anyway. If all city officers were as diligent there wouldn't be much work for the federal prohibition men to do.

Meet Your Mail Man at the Box
Just at this season of the year the rural route carriers have just about as much load as they can carry each day, and in numerous cases the burden is made much heavier by the carriers being compelled to carry a package containing perishable goods back and forth for two or three days.

A special request is made to all rural route patrons, if possible, to be on hand during the coming two weeks and through the holidays that are expecting parcels post in order that they may relieve the rural route carriers. A number of packages are returned for as many as two days due to no one being at the rural box and the packages were too large to leave on the outside of the box.

If the patrons will observe this and be on hand to meet the rural route men, much delay will be avoided in delivery of the mail.

If you have a package to mail for Christmas delivery it is time that the same was being delivered to the post office or rural carrier, as the mail for this year is unusually heavy and it will be impossible to handle all mail during the last few days before Christmas.

Honey Used at Moonshine Still
Georgetown, Dec. 13—Sheriff F. V. Nunnelley arrested Will Davis and J. C. Perkins on a charge of stealing honey from Frank Robinson, who lives near Duvalle, this county. Authorities became suspicious that the honey was being used to make moonshine whisky and went back to search for the still. They found a coil, tubs, mash, and other things that were being used in making whisky and arrested Joe Perkins, who was lodged in the Scott county jail.

Says Horse Is Coming Back
(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Dec. 13—The horse is coming back in the big cities, according to Wirth G. Dunham, of Wayne, Ill., president of the Horse Association of America.

"There has been a tremendous change in public opinion in favor of the horse," Mr. Dunham said. "Chicago is using 3,000 more than last year. Philadelphia shows an increase of 25 per cent, and in New York also the horse has made gains."

Mr. Dunham declared that the most complete cost system his association has been able to obtain, made by one of the biggest of Chicago's department stores, showed a saving of $4,000 a year in favor of horses.

FIRST BAPTISTS ELECT TWELVE DEACONS

On Sunday morning at the Baptist church twelve deacons were elected by the congregation.

The election of new deacons was occasioned by the fact that the church has lost three of its deacons in the past few months, namely, Mr. L. P. Evans, Mr. J. Calvin Taylor and Mr. R. C. H. Covington. In electing deacons to fill their places it was decided to enlarge the board of deacons, making the number twelve, instead of seven, as originally.

Another new feature of this plan is the rotation plan which is becoming popular among the more progressive churches of the Baptist and other denominations.

Four of the number were elected to serve three years, four for two years and four for one year.

Those elected for the three-year term are Messrs. Harvey Chenuault, S. H. Thorpe, J. C. Chenuault and A. K. McCown. Those elected for two years are Messrs.

H. G. Sandlin, D. C. Biggerstaff, T. D. Chenuault, Jr. and J. A. Kunkel. Those elected for one year are Messrs. W. G. Crutcher, Preston Cox, Nick Harber and R. H. McKinney.

BIG BUYER WILL TAKE POOL LEAF

No Discrimination Against Burley Co-operative Association
Says Letter From L. & M.

That it has been and is now the policy of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company to obtain its requirements of leaf tobacco by purchasing "through any and all agencies or leaf dealers, without favor and without discrimination" is the declaration made in a letter from Vice President H. A. Walker, of the company, to James C. Stone, chairman of the committee on temporary operations of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association.

Mr. Walker declares that he not only sees no reason for antagonism between the buyer and purchaser, but "on the other hand there appears every reason why there should be mutual confidence and co-operation so long as honest, straightforward methods are pursued and every buyer is given an equal opportunity and receives just and fair treatment."

Mr. Walker's letter in full follows:

New York, Nov. 30, 1921.
Mr. James C. Stone, Chairman of Committee on Operations, Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Stone:—

Since the organization of our company it has been, and is now, our fixed policy to purchase our requirements of leaf tobacco thru any and all organized agencies or leaf dealers, in conformity to the customs of the trade, without favor and without discrimination, as to the method or the time of sale, and we know of no valid reason to change this policy.

It goes without saying that the producer or the owner of a commodity has a right to sell it in such a manner and at such time as he may desire, and the buyer has equal rights; and not only does there seem no reason for antagonism or lack of co-operation between seller and buyer, but, on the other hand, there appears every reason why there should be mutual confidence and co-operation so long as honest, straightforward methods are pursued and every buyer is given an equal opportunity and receives just and fair treatment. There will be no discrimination against your association on the part of our buyers, and we shall give careful consideration to any and all proposals which you may desire to submit to us. Yours very truly,

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Kernersville, N. C.—In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of Kernersville, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag.

"I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good.

"Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did.

"I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui."

Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. M. M. describes.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

The Versailles Sun has the following about the address delivered on "Capitular Masonry" by Robert R. Burnam, Sr., of Richmond, at the celebration of Webb chapter there last week: Robert R. Burnam, past grand high priest of the Grand Chapter and past grand commander of the Grand Commandery, spoke on "Capitular Masonry" and made the principal address. Mr. Burnam is one of the truest exemplars of Masonic ideals, a student and a scholar. His account of the origin of Capitular Masonry was instructive and charming. He made a plea for constructive work in Kentucky by Chapter Masons.

William L. Wallace, who practices law at Frankfort, came over Monday to start his campaign for State Senator in this district for which he was nominated by the Republican committee last week. With the election coming on Dec. 24, and not much interest, the race between him and Col. Oldham may develop into an interesting one, after all. A lot of republican counties had a disconcerting way of going democratic at the recent election.

Inexpensive Christmas gifts for men

In one sense, you'd find that a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit or overcoat would be the most inexpensive gift you could find. The long service and satisfaction he would get would make it so.

But there are so many smaller things, that cost less, and are just as good value for the price, that you're sure to find something to satisfy your purse and the man's taste in our fine stock. We're here to help you, not simply to sell you something.

HERE ARE A FEW SUGGESTIONS

Hats — the latest soft shapes; caps, derbies
Neckwear - in fine heavy silks; silk knits, too.

House robes, underwear, hosiery, sweater coats, pajamas—everything a man needs and wears. Trunks, suit cases, traveling bags, belts, VanHusian soft collars that have made such a hit in the larger cities.

FOUGHT MAD BULL TO SAVE GIRL'S LIFE

(By Associated Press)

Navvoo, Ill., Dec. 13—A bull fight worthy of the best Spanish tradition took place on a farm near here recently.

Carl Marzolf, the toroeador in the case, fought, not for the cheers of a crowd, but for a woman's life. A lonely, pasture hillside was the arena, a pitchfork instead of a sword was the weapon and instead of a holiday throng two or three scared women watched the fight. Marzolf won.

Miss Agatha Weilner, a music teacher, had often ventured into the pasture of her father's farm, where the bull was kept, but he had never made any unfriendly overtures. This day he charged her. For sometime she dodged him among the trees of an old orchard, then ran for the fence where she fell between a stretch of wire netting and a thorny hedge. The bull could just reach her by stretching the netting. Each time she tried to rise he knocked her back among the thorns.

A woman neighbor came with a pitchfork but was unable to make effective use of it against the bull who was not genuinely angry. Marzolf arrived and, fork in hand, climbed the fence. Each time the bull charged, he side stepped and jabbed. In one of these bouts he drove the fork so deep into the animal that it was jerked from his hands and carried some distance before it worked loose and fell out. He recovered it in time. Finally the bull had enough of it.

McVEY SPONSORS HIGHWAY MEETING

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Dec. 13—A two-day conference of Kentuckians interested in highway economics and transport will be held here during the latter part of January, according to an announcement of tentative plans made today by Dr. Frank L. McVeay, President of the University of Kentucky. The meeting will be held at the University which is co-operating with the State Highway Transport Committee in arranging the event. January 23 and 24 have been set as the tentative dates.

The meeting, which is to be one of a series held throughout the United States, will be designed to work out some of the increasing problems of road building and maintenance, according to the President McVeay. Prominent road authorities in Kentucky as well as a number of other states, have been scheduled for addresses on the tentative program. An inspection tour of highways in and around Lexington will be made during the last day of the conference.

The value of good roads in increasing land values, types of roads for different kinds of vehicles, safety first, mountain road development, highway engineering research and the future of highway transportation are to occupy an important place on the program of the meeting.

The value of baking powder is based on its leavening strength. You can't judge it by the size of the can—or by the amount you get for your money. You must estimate it by the amount of baking powder used in each baking and the results you get.

is the greatest value ever offered in Baking Powder—it has greater raising "force"—it goes farther than many of the other brands. You use only a rounded or heaping teaspoonful where many others call for two teaspoonsfuls or more.

But Baking Powder is not all you'll save when using Calumet. You save baking materials. Calumet never fails. The last level teaspoonful is as powerful as the first. Calumet is perfectly manufactured—keeps perfectly—and is moderate in price.

You save when you buy it.
You save when you use it.

One trial will satisfy you of these facts—and demonstrate beyond doubt that "Calumet spells economy."

Your grocer sells it on a guarantee of money back if you are not pleased with results.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

OBSERVE THIS

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

May Take Another Census

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Dec. 13—Because of a "considerable dissatisfaction" with the result of the count in the census taken last January, the House Census Committee is considering legislation providing for another enumeration of the population of the United States in 1925 or some other year prior to the next decennial census. Secretary Hoover says today in that portion of his annual report dealing with the activities of the Census Bureau.

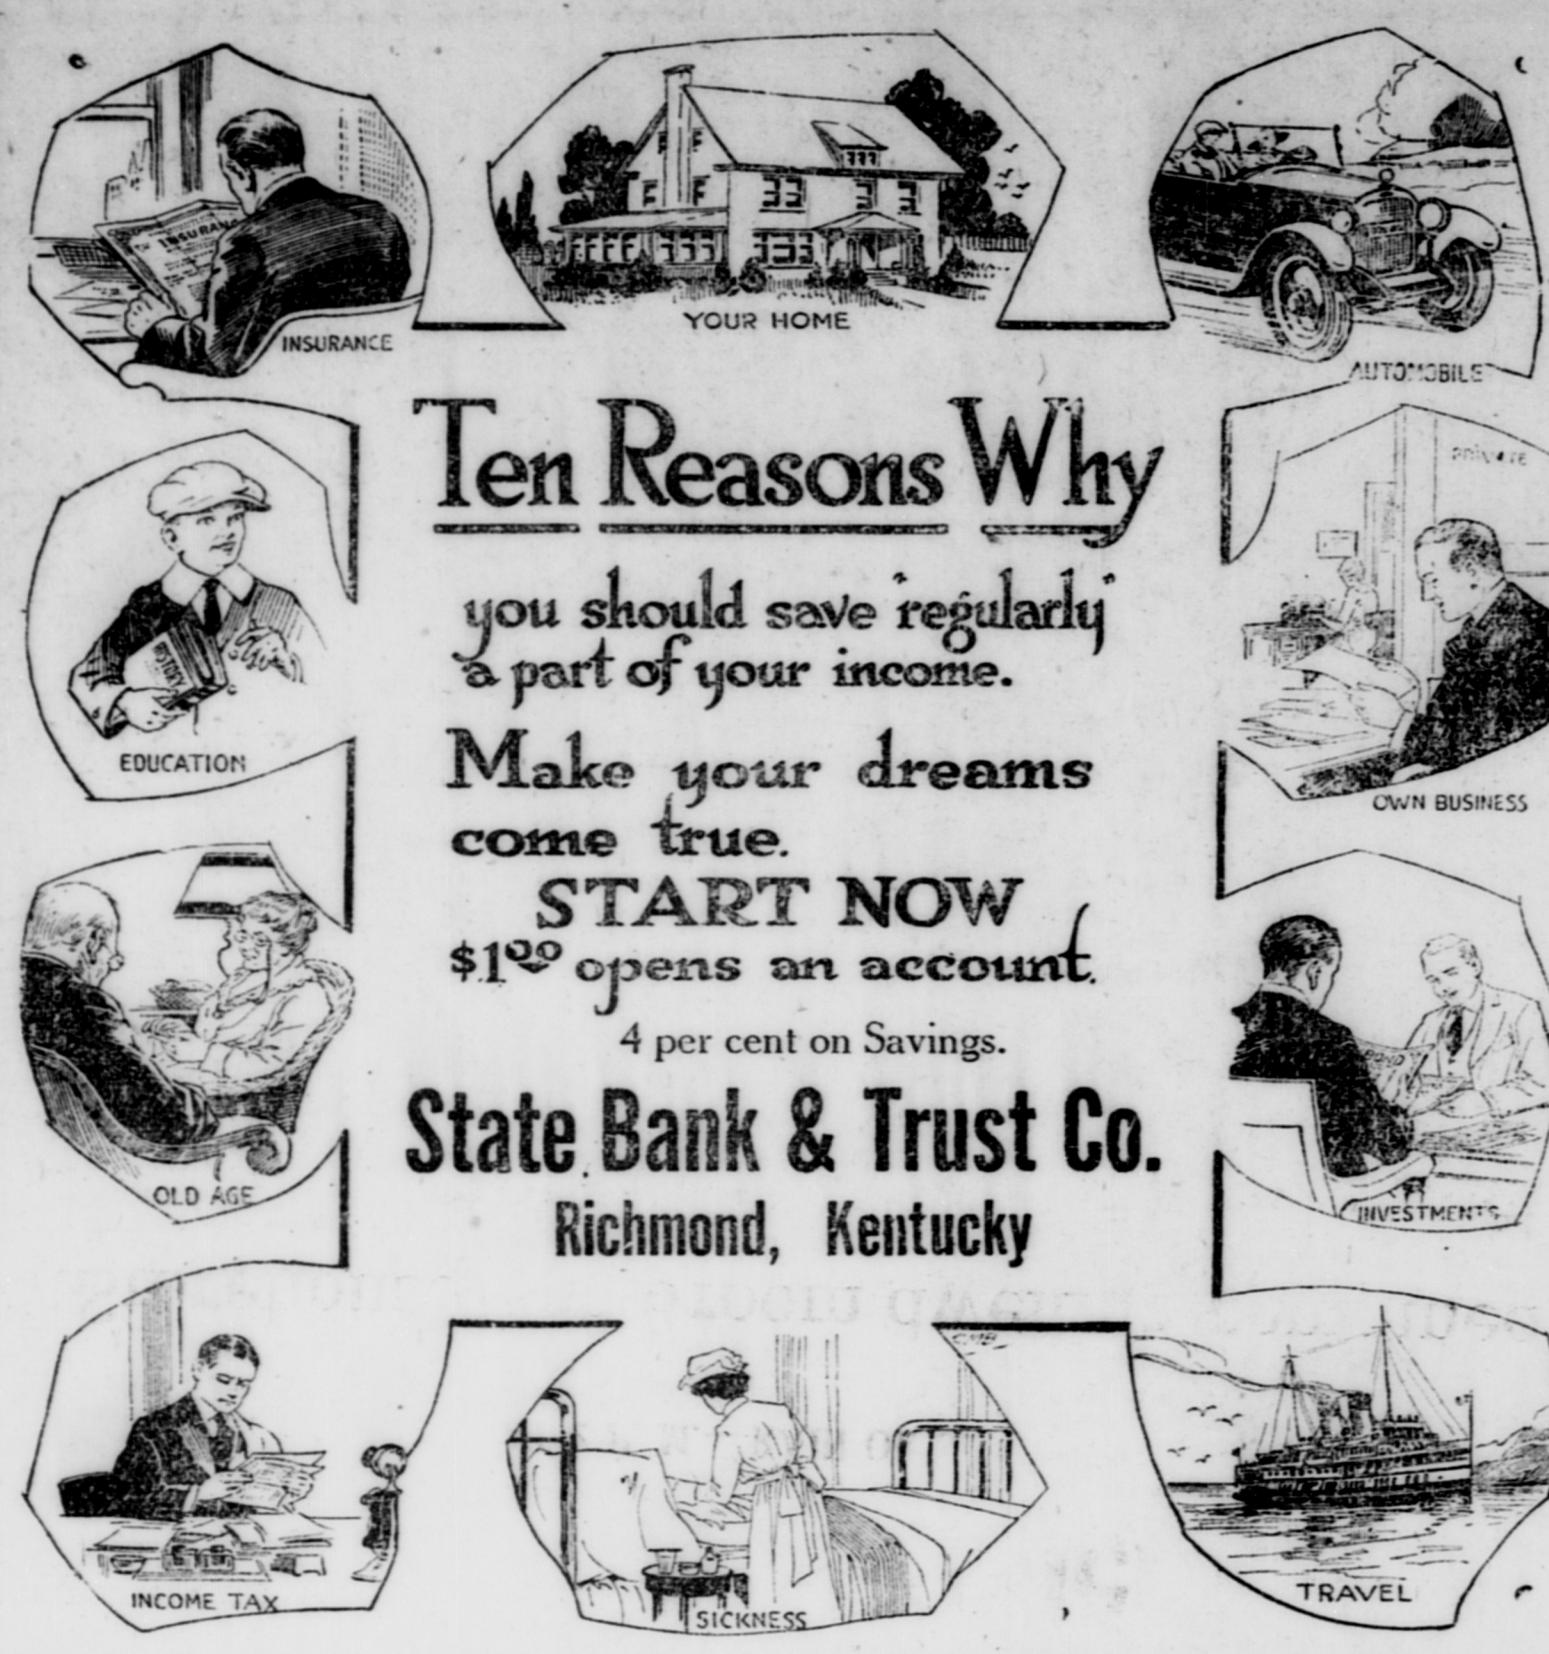

The supply of fresh eggs continues to increase from week to week, due to the open weather, and has resulted in lower prices both in consuming and producing centers.

SWIFT PRODUCE REVIEW

The light supply of poultry noted in our last weekly review has continued during the past week, resulting in a smaller advance in the selling markets, but the movement is becoming heavier and an easier tendency has been shown in selling values.

The butter market has declined during the week, due to continued increased receipts. The American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers reports an increase of 35 per cent for week ending December 2, as compared with the corresponding week last year, and continued increase! manufacture will probably make the importation of butter from foreign countries unnecessary during winter months.

One of the most important factors confronting the producers and manufacturers today is the implement necessary in the quality of cream delivered to the creameries. Better care on the farm and deliveries at least twice a week during the winter months will result in an improved quality of butter and tend toward better prices.

MOISTURE ROTTS PAPER AND BIBLE

From Under Cornerstone of Old
Madison Institute Building
Being Razored

In razing the old Madison Institute building last week, contractors Stone and Bingham uncovered the corner stone, and beneath it found a box with contents, mildewed and rotted with age. The box contained a gold dollar, a copper cent, a New Testament and an old paper. It was laid in 1858. However, the box was not water tight and moisture had practically rotted the papers and testament beyond recognition.

Older citizens who remember the cornerstone laying were reminiscing over the long list of prominent educators who had been at the head of this famous institution of learning of another day. Gen. N. B. Deatherage said that he was in the country at the time the cornerstone was laid and started to town on mule back but got here too late for the ceremony. He was a lad at the time and has vivid recollections of the occasion, which was made a big event here at the time.

He furnished the Daily Register with a list of the men who have been at the head of old Madison Institute since its founding. The list started with Jones Mullins, B. J. Pickerton, W. B. Smith, O. P. Miller, W. P. Williamson, Mrs. D. R. Chenault, P. J. Hagerman, David Clark, Miss Alice Lloyd, George Simmons and J. B. Cassiday.

In his dismantling of the old building to make way for the new Madison High school building, Contractor R. K. Stone came across a couple of letters of interest behind an old mantle. They were written by a woman to her husband who was a Union soldier during the civil war. Yankees were quartered in the building at one time in 1862 when Union forces occupied Richmond, and these two letters were apparently from the same woman to her husband. She talks about the "Secesh" but mostly of family affairs. The letters are yellow with age, but are legible. The name of the husband-soldier is given as B. F. Warren, and his wife writing to him signs her name Mary H. Warren.

COOPER TALKS OF FARMERS' PLIGHT

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 13.—There may have been a time when the old query "Did your dad sell a hog?" directed by boys at possessor of a new suit of clothes had some truth in it, but such is not the case today when the purchasing power of the proverbial porker is in a considerable slump, according to authorities who have made a study of the economic situation as it affects the farmer.

In commenting on the situation as depicted in figures sent out by the United States Department of Agriculture, Director Thomas P. Cooper, of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, declared that the present crisis, as it affects the farmers, is the most serious they have experienced in many years.

"When it is remembered that today one bushel of corn, one of the most important agricultural products, will purchase one-half as much as it did in 1913, one can get a vivid impression of what the farmer is passing through," Director Cooper said.

At October wholesale prices, milk, eggs, and potatoes had the highest purchasing power in a group including cotton, corn, wheat, hay, potatoes, steers, hogs, eggs, milk and wool. Corn had the lowest purchasing power of any of the group, according to figures.

While the purchasing power of farm products is shifting, little or no increase is being shown, Director Cooper said. During November, the purchasing power of the products named dropped slightly lower than it was in September.

At October prices, one unit of corn would purchase .5 of a unit of all commodities; .39 units of cloth; .41 units of fuel; .62 units of metal; .39 units of building materials and .34 units of house furnishing goods, according to the figures.

Steers had a slightly higher purchasing power at the same prices, one unit of them having a purchasing power of .69 units of all commodities; .55 units of cloths; .57 units of fuel; .86 units of metal; .54 units of building materials; and .48 units of house furnishing goods.

New Light on Batteries

"Since all batteries look so much alike on the outside, how am I going to tell which one has the most value inside?"

That is a practical every-day question—and it has a simple every-day answer.

What greater assurance could you possibly have than the following combination of facts:

1—Extraordinary quality in the battery is seen as shown in the choice of the Willard Chrome Rubber Battery as standard equipment by the manufacturers of 173 makers of cars and trucks.

2—Nation-wide organization to serve you and—

3—A record of quality and service dating nearly to the beginning of the automobile.

You don't need a formal invitation. Come in any old time and get some new light on this battery question.

A Dream Came True

For side-wall illumination the sconce which adorned the chimney-piece of our grandmother has again found favor, but instead of tallow-dips they are equipped with candle-like electric bulbs which lend a soft, safe light and add materially to the beauty of the room.

For central illumination the candelabra of our grandparents which faintly lighted home interiors and cast shadows of imaginative portent have now been replaced by electrical fixtures of pleasing and harmonious design—to give adequate light.

These facts she knew. She had wished so hard and so often silently and almost hopelessly for new electrical fixtures to replace the unsightly brackets and jets that the sight of the sconces and fixture on Christmas morning was like a dream come true.

Perhaps you, too, have someone in your home who is wishing "her" dream would come true. It would cost very little to make her wish a reality.

This is Santa Claus' headquarters for electrical fixtures in many substantial designs at agreeable prices. At your service,
